

Priority (Settings)

Here you can choose the name, level and color code for the priorities used in all types of cases.
You can also choose which priority should be standard when registering new cases.
Cases with a deleted priority will show priority in red and is locked for updates until priority has been changed.