

Start within

This time limit is linked to the SLA (SL Type) and shows when the case should be started within.

Actually started:

The information is also displayed in the «Start» field. This field shows when the case was actually commenced to show how long it takes from receiving a case and until you actually start working on the matter.