Registration of new case by email

User can register new case by sending an email to a defined email address.
The case is placed in the inbox and is registered to the correct user.

Screenshots from email are entered in the description field or work log.
Attachments are added to the «Attachments» tab.