

SL Type

«SL Type» shows the registered service levels available to each customer. If you have a standard service agreement for a customer, this can be automatically linked to the customer. Each time you select a user / customer, the «SL Type» will automatically come up, and response time, item type (CI type), item (CI), category, influence, priority, type, etc will automatically be set.